Semi-trucks cause disproportionate road damage, with one 5-axle trailer potentially equating to the pavement wear of over 9,600 passenger cars. This damage—including potholes, severe rutting, and debris—directly causes car damage like cracked windshields, suspension failures, and flat tires. Driving behind trucks,
